AI Drawing - Characters, Outfits & Cosplay

Placement:

Character and outfit prompts are generally placed after metadata tags.

First, describe the number of characters: e.g., 1girl, 2girls, 1girl and 1 boy, 2girls and 1boy

Then describe interactions between characters: e.g., 2girls, holding hands; 1girl and 1boy, walking together; ...

Character Features:

Anima requires standard character feature tags to draw a specific character from a given franchise, along with possible alternate outfits. Specific feature tags can be looked up at: https://animadex.net/?mode=characters

When drawing alternate outfits, it is recommended to use tag collection sites such as https://prompt.newzone.top/zh to find clothing tags.

Examples:

Anima also conveniently supports drawing cosplay of specific characters (having one character wear another character's outfit).

The specific procedure is as follows:

First, write the name of the main character, keeping only the character's name tags; then write the name of the character you want to cosplay, adding (cosplay) after the name, followed by a detailed description of the cosplay outfit tags.

Example: Drawing a cosplay of king halo wearing silence suzuka's swimsuit:

1girl, king halo \(umamusume\), umamusume, silence suzuka \(emerald on the waves\) \(cosplay\), hair flower, navel, bare shoulders, necklace, bracelet, navel, bracelet, necklace, hair ornament, bare shoulders, blue sarong, aqua bikini, collarbone, braided bun, garter jewelry, armlet,

Drawing a cosplay of silence suzuka wearing king halo's wedding dress:

1girl, silence suzuka \(umamusume\), umamusume, king halo \(evergreen identity\) \(umamusume\)(cosplay), single ear cover, white dress, elbow gloves, white gloves, wedding dress, bare shoulders, necklace, bride
